

Number Sequences

Learning objectives

The work in this unit is focused on number sequences. After completing this unit you should

- understand and deduce the rule that defines simple sequences
- be able to find sequences based on geometrical patterns
- be able to use formulae to find and use number sequences.